Three State Reps & Public Regulation Commissioner Announce Their Support

(Las Cruces, NM) – Today congressional candidate and Doña Ana County Commissioner Bill McCamley announced the support of four key Democratic elected officials in New Mexico’s 2nd Congressional District. Representatives Antonio Lujan (Doña Ana County), Andy Nuñez (Doña Ana County), and Nate Cote (Doña Ana and Otero Counties), and District 5 Public Regulation Commissioner Sandy Jones released the following statement of their endorsement:

“We are pleased to announce our endorsement of Bill McCamley for Congress. We’ve seen the results he has achieved for his constituents as a Doña Ana County Commissioner, and we’re looking forward to seeing him do even better in Washington, DC.

“This election is all about bringing fresh ideas, new energy, and a focus on results to Congress, and that’s just what we expect from Commissioner McCamley. He is exactly the kind of representative we need in Washington, and we will work to help him get there.”

“I am honored to have this strong support from Democrats who represent the second Congressional district,” said McCamley. “Together, we are getting out the message that it’s time for change in Washington. It’s time for a representative who focuses on getting results for the people of southern New Mexico, and that’s what I intend to do.”
